So what a great day we had!! with all involved our Blessed Mother project is complete and it is the last thing that needed to be done to bring our new Knights of Columbus home To the finish line, thanks Father Soprano for giving us this great building, I want to thank everyone involved, we are so Blessed to have so many talented people who volunteer the time without question, It's truly remarkable. We are so glad to be a Parish based Council again it was not an easy task but We got it done, in the words of Father Soprano Welcome Home Brothers Welcome Home!!!

Always doing it 3546 style.. God Bless 🙏
