Glory to Jesus Christ!

Pope Benedict XVI, in his Lenten message from 2011 writes:

“The question that Jesus puts to the Samaritan woman: “Give me a drink” (Jn 4: 7), is presented to us in the liturgy of the third Sunday; it expresses the passion of God for every man and woman, and wishes to awaken in our hearts the desire for the gift of “a spring of water within, welling up for eternal life” (Jn 4: 14): this is the gift of the Holy Spirit, who transforms Christians into “true worshipers,” capable of praying to the Father “in spirit and truth” (Jn 4: 23). Only this water can extinguish our thirst for goodness, truth and beauty! Only this water, given to us by the Son, can irrigate the deserts of our restless and unsatisfied soul, until it “finds rest in God”, as per the famous words of St. Augustine.”

He continues:

“The Lenten journey finds its fulfillment in the Paschal Triduum, especially in the Great Vigil of the Holy Night: renewing our baptismal promises, we reaffirm that Christ is the Lord of our life, that life which God bestowed upon us when we were reborn of “water and Holy Spirit”, and we profess again our firm commitment to respond to the action of the Grace in order to be his disciples.”

I urge you not to hold back this Lent, and to pray to the Father “in spirit and truth” as a true disciple.

God bless you!

-Fr. King

They administer the Sacrament of the Sick in the many hospitals throughout our area, conduct pastoral visits with patients, families, and hospital staff, help coordinate the visits of parish Extraordinary Ministers of the Eucharist and assist in a diocesan-wide effort to teach our Catholic faithful more about the Sacraments of the Sick.

Too often people become comfortable, permitting a few others to assume responsibilities that rightly should be carried by many.

Though they feel called to become involved they think they can't, aren't capable, don't have the time. In truth they are simply comfortable in their own little niche and don't want to risk discomfort.

Well, it is LENT, a good time to grow which always involves discomfort. All of our lay ministries could benefit from additional members, especially the lectors. Being a lector is truly an enriching, beautiful experience. Allowing the Lord to use my voice to proclaim his word has been for me a life changing process. The words of scripture take on life for a lector as they read and practice, understanding is enhanced. Your participation in Mass enriched. Have you been listening to that soft whisper of God's and finding 100 excuses for NOT responding? Are you letting fear hold you back? Allow your Lenten journey to make a difference, open your heart, serve the Lord with trust! Become a lector. Training and support will be provided.

One Vision, One Community

When I first became a parishioner at St. Raymond in 1989, there were 6 Masses on the weekend at our church. There were 2 on Saturday evening (4, 5:30), 3 on Sunday morning (7:30, 9, and 11), and a 6pm Mass on Sunday evening. It would be great to think that we will return to that someday, but the lack of church attendance is not just a local trend – it is nationwide. We also know that the closing of our school played a significant role in this loss of participation. We now have one Mass on Sunday at 8am which, in the winter months, normally fills half the church. And that is why we are fortunate to have St. Raymond Church designated as the location of the Cape May County Regional Hispanic Ministry.

The arrival of this ministry has breathed new life into our church. The interior of the church was scrubbed from top to bottom. The rugs and pews have never looked as good as they do now, and that took a lot of work. But that was only the beginning, as the landscaping on the outside has also given the exterior a fresh look. These are things that our folks simply have been unable to do for years. And now the Hispanic Ministry has taken on the task of raising funds and renovating the Chapel, which was in desperate need of repair.

And we also need to say that the displays for Our Lady of Guadalupe and Christmas that our fellow parishioners erect in St. Raymond are, by far, the best ever in our Church and, we proudly believe, the best in the Diocese. The number of folks sending pictures of the creche on their phones to their family members would back this up. And the fervor with which the Hispanic community (and many of our English-speaking community) display by coming to church on December 12th at 5am to honor Our Lady of Guadalupe is humbling.

We are one Parish Community. Some of us speak English, some of us do not. But we walk together in our Faith, and together make one vibrant community that serves the Lord. Individually, the clock would be ticking on our beloved St. Raymond, but collectively the future is bright. We are fortunate to have the Hispanic folks as part of our church and look forward to growing that One Parish Community.

Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica

Los Siete Sacramentos de la Iglesia

Bautismo, Confirmación, Eucarística, Penitencia, Unción de los enfermos, Orden Sacerdotal y Matrimonio

Capítulo Primero

Los Sacramentos de la Iniciación Cristiana

Artículo 1 EL SACRAMENTO DEL BAUTISMO

VII LA GRACIA DEL BAUTISMO

1265 El Bautismo no solamente purifica de todos los pecados, hace también del neófito "una nueva creatura" (2 Co 5,17), un hijo adoptivo de Dios (cf Ga 4,5-7) que ha sido hecho "partícipe de la naturaleza divina" (2 P 1,4), miembro de Cristo (cf 1 Co 6,15; 12,27), coheredero con Él (Rm 8,17) y templo del Espíritu Santo (cf 1 Co 6,19).

1266 La Santísima Trinidad da al bautizado la gracia santificante, la gracia de la justificación que :

- le hace capaz de creer en Dios, de esperar en Él y de amarlo mediante las virtudes teologales;
- le concede poder vivir y obrar bajo la moción del Espíritu Santo mediante los dones del Espíritu Santo;
- le permite crecer en el bien mediante las virtudes morales.

Así todo el organismo de la vida sobrenatural del cristiano tiene su raíz en el santo Bautismo.

Incorporados a la Iglesia, Cuerpo de Cristo

1267 El Bautismo hace de nosotros miembros del Cuerpo de Cristo. "Por tanto [...] somos miembros los unos de los otros" (Ef 4,25). El Bautismo incorpora a la Iglesia. De las fuentes bautismales nace el único pueblo de Dios de la Nueva Alianza que trasciende todos los límites naturales o humanos de las naciones, las culturas, las razas y los sexos: "Porque en un solo Espíritu hemos sido todos bautizados, para no formar más que un cuerpo" (1 Co 12,13).

1268 Los bautizados vienen a ser "piedras vivas" para "edificación de un edificio espiritual, para un sacerdocio santo" (1 P 2,5). Por el Bautismo participan del sacerdocio de Cristo, de su misión profética y real, son "linaje elegido, sacerdocio real, nación santa, pueblo adquirido, para anunciar las alabanzas de aquel que os ha llamado de las tinieblas a su admirable luz" (1 P 2,9). El Bautismo hace participar en el sacerdocio común de los fieles.

1269 Hecho miembro de la Iglesia, el bautizado ya no se pertenece a sí mismo (1 Co 6,19), sino al que murió y resucitó por nosotros (cf 2 Co 5,15). Por tanto, está llamado a someterse a los demás (Ef 5,21; 1 Co 16,15-16), a servirles (cf Jn 13,12-15) en la comunión de la Iglesia, y a ser "obediente y dócil" a los pastores de la Iglesia (Hb 13,17) y a considerarlos con respeto y afecto (cf 1 Ts 5,12-13). Del mismo modo que el Bautismo es la fuente de responsabilidades y deberes, el bautizado goza también de derechos en el seno de la Iglesia: recibir los sacramentos, ser alimentado con la palabra de Dios y ser sostenido por los otros auxilios espirituales de la Iglesia (cf LG 37; CIC can. 208-223; CCEO, can. 675,2).

1270 Los bautizados "renacidos [por el bautismo] como hijos de Dios están obligados a confesar delante de los hombres la fe que recibieron de Dios por medio de la Iglesia" (LG 11) y de participar en la actividad apostólica y misionera del Pueblo de Dios (cf LG 17; AG 7,23).
